

INDIA'S AGRICULTURAL CROP
PRODUCTION ANALYSIS (1997-2021)

Says

What were the stakeholders Saying during this period?

Farmers expressed concerns about changing weather patterns affecting crop yields.

Agricultural experts highlighted the importance of technology in improving productivity.

Government officials discussed policies and subsidies related to agriculture.

Thinks

What were their thoughts and concerns?

Farmers were worried about unpredictable weather and its impact on their income.

Experts were thinking about innovative farming techniques and sustainable practices.

Government officials were considering ways to support the agricultural sector.

Does

What actions did they take?

Farmers adopted new farming technologies and sought weather forecasting services.

Experts conducted research and provided guidance on sustainable farming

Government officials implemented policies and provided financial support to farmers

Feels

What were their emotions?

Farmers felt stressed due to weather-related uncertainties.

Experts felt hopeful about the potential of technology to address challenges.

Government officials felt responsible for ensuring food security.